Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

This is in furtherance to an Examiner Interview conducted on August 11, 2009 during which the following was discussed:

1. Claims as amended,
2. Cited references,
3. Specification and amendments thereto,
4. Submitted documents for swearing behind the Song reference (Exhibits A and B),
5. The 131 Declaration, and
6. Certified copy of the priority application.

The Examiner indicated that the claims as amended overcome the cited references and that he will need to do a further search to determine whether he can approve the claims as in condition for allowance.

The Examiner also requested that a translated copy of the Korean Application to which a claim of priority is made to be filed with the USPTO under MPEP 706.02 (b) (6) as a means to perfect the 131 Declaration, to overcome the 102(e) rejection based on the Song reference.

A copy of the documents received from the client as an accurate translated copy of the Korean Application as filed is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Said documents include:

1. An English-language translation of the priority Korean Application No. 10-2002-0039791 with a Statement of Verification dated August 28, 2009; and
 2. A Trial for Correction Request dated October 14, 2009 as filed in Korean with the KIPO and an English-language translation of the Trial for Correction Request.
